

SOFÍA COLLADO ECHAURE, INDRA'S NEW HUMAN RESOURCES DIRECTOR

Madrid, June 1, 2023 - Sofia Collado Echaure has been appointed Indra's new Human Resources Director. In her new role, she will report to CEO José Vicente de los Mozos and will be responsible for the entire company and all its regions.

"Indra needs to focus all its efforts on finding and retaining talent, as well as knowledge management, with a company-wide perspective that allows us to bring back the pride of belonging that's shared by all employees in all regions," said José Vicente de los Mozos, CEO of Indra.

Profile of Sofia Collado Echaure

Sofia Collado Echaure holds a degree in Business Administration and Management from the University of Comillas (ICADE) and an MBA from IESE-University of Navarre. She has been part of the Indra Group since 2018, where she has been serving as Minsait's Human Resources Director.

She has spent most of her professional career in Human Resources. Before joining Indra, she was Director of Human Capital for Europe at Russell Reynolds Associates, after having headed the Professional Development department for Iberia at McKinsey & Company, and having previously worked as a business consultant at Bain & Company.

About Indra

Indra (www.indracompany.com) is one of the leading global technology and consulting companies and the technological partner for core business operations of its customers worldwide. It is a world-leader in providing proprietary solutions in specific segments in Transport and Defence markets, and a leading firm in Digital Transformation and Information Technologies in Spain and Latin America through its affiliate Minsait. Its business model is based on a comprehensive range of proprietary products, with a high-value, end-to-end focus and with a high innovation component. In the 2022 financial year, Indra achieved revenue totaling 3,851 million euros, with almost 57,000 employees, a local presence in 46 countries and business operations in over 140 countries.